Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—For Kansas: Tonight and Tuesday: fair; warmer; winds becoming southeasterly.

If the Topeka police are prodded enough by public opinion they will make an arrest once in awhile.

Wichita Eagle: Li Hung retires in disgust. As the emperor had deprived him of most of his clothing he could not retire in anything else.

The death of Oliver Wendell Holmes removes one of the brightest minds and one of the most charming personalities that America has ever produced.

The Wichita Eagle thinks the state house officials are bound to keep the National Democratic administration from having a corner on the perfidy and dishonor business.

SENATOR HILL's acceptance has a kind of the "die is cast" meaning in it. He must carry New York this time or forever give up the hope of the Democratic nomination for the presidency.

A Chetopa woman, the home ties of whom the gentle warmth of summer melted, has become sobered by the prospects of a long hard winter and adjusted all differences with her husband.

The Methodist church at Chanute contains 400 members and only about twenty attend prayer meeting. These twenty experiences have been told to many times that a card has been published in the paper urging more to attend.

This is the time of year when each political party discovers that the opposing parties are disintegrating, but the pieces are always gathered up carefully after election and brought out before the public the next year.

In order to justify himself before the people Congressman Wilson is going to have his London banquet speech printed and spread broadcast. Had the people foreseen this they would have been quite willing to overlook his remarks.

SECRETARY OF STATE OSBORN has broken out again with his fireworks and calls the report of his Oakley speech an "unmitigated lie." It was thought that after Mr. Osborn had delivered himself of his Winchester-cow speech he would learn temperance, but it was too much to expect.

The Democrats are just now engaged in a frantic effort to convince the country that there is a great revival in business. It is a singular fact that the political party in power is always doing the same thing regardless of the facts, and the parties trying to get in always deny with an equal disregard of the truth. Neither fools the people much. They know when times are good and when they are not.

HILL TO THE RESCUE.

Senator David B. Hill has at last accepted the nomination of his party for the governorship of New York. He was the only hope of the Democracy of that state. It was not possible to elect any other Democrat and they knew it. To Tammany it is more important that the Democratic party should control the state of New York than that it should have a majority in the United States senate. Mr. Hill doubtless sees as the result of a winning fight a possible nomination for the presidency. The man who can rescue the Democracy of the Empire state from impending defeat this year must naturally stand first in the order of succession to the presidency so far as New York is concerned and the state has always wielded great power in the party's councils.

The contest between the two great parties this year will in reality be a struggle between the two great party bosses. That Levi P. Morton was nominated at the dictation of Tom Platt is not questioned. All state issues and state interests will be lost sight of in the campaign. The struggle will be to determine which set of bosses shall boss. Neither Mr. Hill nor Mr. Morton has ever given any evidence of statesmanship which would entitle them to be placed at the head of affairs in a great state like New York. Mr. Morton is not even an able boss, but his friend Platt looks after that. He will have a decided advantage over the senator among the intelligent and respectable people but Hill, through Tammany, will get the vote of the slums and the slum vote generally decides elections in New York.

If Hill should be elected governor of New York this fall he can hardly be defeated for the nomination of his party for the presidency in 1896.

KANSAS PARAGRAPHS.

Cornfield Jack is dispensing corn juice from a new joint at Nickerson.

The name of Mr. Piburn of Kinsley has no etymological relation whatever to Piburn.

Mr. Cheatem is a Missouri man who has settled down in Reno county to be an honest farmer.

At Kinsley a man who stole a bride and was taken to the county jail refers to his trip as his bride tour.

The Chetopa Democrat rather ambiguously says "The reunion brought the usual number of disreputable characters to the city."

A Kinsley politician is trying to curry favor with the people by announcing that at the county convention he was neither delegate, alternate nor candidate.

The Anthony Bulletin publishes the Kansas array law in full, doubtless so that the party which gets snowed under at the election will not be wholly without hope.

The Herington Signal will run ads. just as long as people are ready to pay for them, without regard to appropriateness. According to it and the ice men "these days are hot and sultry."

It takes lots of trouble to be honest, according to the views held by the Strong City Derrick. An honest man by its definition must select all the little apples and put them at the top of the barrel.

Thirty-five Strong City young men got together and organized a dancing club the other day and at least thirty-five Strong City young women will have some place else to go this winter besides Sunday evening church.

Governor McKinley told the traveling men, a party of whom he met at the hotel at Hutchinson, that they were the wheels of trade and commerce. This is probably because they are fellows who go around so much.

There are photographers at Ness City who advertise the taking of "babies and nervous people especially," that is babies and those who have to be around babies.

A man who came in to Herington from the country left his team standing hitched all night on the street, and every one said "beer" or "poker" with a significant look, but never once thought it might have been a sick friend he was sitting up with.

STAHL STEPS IN.

The New County Treasurer Takes His Office Tomorrow—His Bond.

Francis M. Stahl will assume the responsibilities of the office of county treasurer tomorrow morning. His bond was approved by the county commissioners today. It is for the sum of $250,000, and his bondsmen are as follows, in the sum of $10,000 each:

A. K. Rodgers, George Neil, J. L. Strohm, J. B. Rowles, J. B. Donnell, John Dickey, Philip Keck, W. R. Black, L. J. Atwood, J. S. Walker, Thomas Quayle, J. D. Carriger, W. A. Carriger, I. D. Wood, T. W. Harrison, Samuel H. Moore, A. W. Padgett, J. N. Robinson, J. C. Mauney, J. A. Baxter, John Porter, Thomas Beckman, Philip Lux, Uriah Carle.

With additional bondsmen in the persons of J. S. Warren, Geo. E. Flanders, D. N. Burdge, James Stewart, R. U. Farnsworth, M. E. Stout, J. W. Vawter, Cary Snyder and T. K. Tomson.

The county commissioners have been busy for several days checking up the books of A. K. Rodgers, the present incumbent. James P. Rowley and Cary Johnson are associate examiners. The checking up process is a formality gone through with each time a treasurer retires and it is safe to assume that Mr. Rodgers' books are as straight as a string. The treasurer's office will probably be closed until a week from today.

FOUR SHERIFF'S SALES.

A Small Number of Executions Had to Be Made Today.

Sheriff Burdge had only four sales today of property delinquent in costs of litigation. The sales in question were:

A. D. Buehler against A. H. Case, et al., lots 66 and 67, Thurston Place, to satisfy a judgment of $2,071.

J. B. Mitchell against G. W. Hogeboom, a part of section 18, township 10, range 16, Judgment $300.

American Savings Bank and Loan association against Milton Burnett, lot 414 Quincy street. Judgment $600.

Charles A. Boughton against J. S. Clark, a part of block "C" at Harrison and Twentieth streets, in Walnut grove. Judgment $710.

Good work done by the Peerless.

LEWELLING ONLY SMILED.

He Didn't Have Anything To Say In Regard to "Charges."

Governor Lewelling was in Kansas City last evening on his way to Troy, where he is billed to speak today.

A Kansas City Times reporter, who found the governor at the Union depot, tried to interview the chief executive of Kansas, but the governor did not want to be interviewed.

"What about the charges that have been published in some of the newspapers?" was asked.

"What charges?" Here the governor raised his eyebrows, as though surprised at the question.

"In regard to the lotteries. You have of course seen the charges that the lotteries exist by the connivance of your administration?"

"O-h-h!" said the governor, as though reminded of ancient history. Then he smiled slightly, shook his head, but said nothing.

"What do you intend to do in regard to the matter?" was the next question.

The governor smiled again. He waved his hand in a deprecatory manner and said:

"I don't think it is the proper time to talk about that."

"But don't you think it is about time you were saying something?"

The governor placed his hand upon the reporter's shoulder in a fatherly manner, and said:

"I am not going to talk. A reporter once said: 'Governor Lewelling has looked up his interviewer and thrown the key in the well.' I believe he was right."

With this he passed out upon the platform, and no amount of questioning could draw another word from him.

JUDGE FOSTER TO PRESIDE

Strong Enough to Open the U. S. Court at Leavenworth Today.

Judge C. G. Foster is strong enough to preside at the session of the United States district court which convenes at Leavenworth today, and left Topeka for that city this afternoon.

Judge Foster's health has been continually improving for several months and he has been able to dispose of a large amount of business of the court at his home here in the Shawnee county jail several months on the charge of using the mails for the purpose of fraud.

The court will probably continue one week and the United States grand jury will be in session during that time. Deputy Marshal Dillard took four prisoners to Leavenworth today who will be tried at this term.

James Tyler of Topeka, who is charged with attempting to change a silver quarter so that it would pass for a $10 gold piece is one of the men. He had his hearing this week.

A. R. Nible of Portia, Kas., is another of the men. He is charged with the embezzlement of a registered letter while he was assistant postmaster at Portia.

W. H. Anderson, an old soldier charged with perjury in a pension case, who has been in the Topeka jail since July, will also be tried. He was indicted in 1893, but was not captured until last summer in Texas.

A case which has attracted considerable attention, and which will come up at Leavenworth, is that of E. J. Vanout long, who has been in the Shawnee county jail several months on the charge of using the mails for the purpose of fraud.

The Free Thinkers convention which was in session here in September, passed resolutions protesting against Vanderberg's imprisonment, and the amount of money which was secured by fraud was only twenty cents. J. D. McClure, the postoffice inspector, who was the principal witness against Vanderberg, was killed at the Carnival Krewe in Kansas City last week.

FIRE WORKS AND GUNS.

The Democrats Will Have a Parade Tonight and Political Speeches.

It is the Democrats' turn to have a great political demonstration in Topeka, and the local Democrats are not going to let their turn pass by default. They will have speeches tonight at Hamilton hall and a flambeau parade that they guarantee will eclipse anything seen in Topeka in this or any other campaign.

The Democratic flambeau club in its new uniform is not only going to parade but has fireworks, and plenty of them, and the fusor will be lighted at 7:30. They claim their sky-rockets will go higher, their Roman candles produce more shooting stars and their fire-wheels make more revolutions per second than any ever seen in the capital city.

Besides the flambeau club there will be a shot gun parade of 100 Democrats each bearing shotguns loaded with blank cartridges.

At Hamilton hall ex-Mayor R. L. Coffran will preside. David Overmyer, George W. Glick, Tom Fenlon, Gen. C. W. Blair and other famous Democrats will be the speakers.

COMPLAINED OF STEELE.

Mr. Wilson Thought He Had a Grievance Against the Policeman, But He Hadn't.

Saturday evening a man named Wilson, who lives in Auburndale, appeared before the board of police commissioners with a complaint against Sergeant Henry Steele.

When the Populist rally was held at the City park Steele captured a son of Wilson's on the charge of pocket picking and took him out of the crowd and searched his pockets, but found nothing, and released him.

Wilson, Sr., thought the dignity of his family had been injured and he wanted Steele discharged. The commissioners heard both Steele and Wilson and when the injured father heard the explanation of the sergeant his wrath was appeased. Steele said the boy acted very suspiciously and he had seen him talking to some persons who were being shadowed by the police.

The commissioners were not called upon to act, as the charges were withdrawn and Steele will not lose his chevrons.
